Making a difference together

Our Story

A man and his son were walking along the beach late one evening as the tide was going out. The beach was strewn with starfish that had been washed up by the stormy seas earlier in the day. The young boy stopped walking and, to the dismay of his father, started picking up the starfish and throwing them back into the sea. His father who was keen to keep moving said, "Why are you doing that, son?" The young boy replied that he was returning the starfish to the sea where they belonged. The boy's father looked at him and said, "But there are too many of them and you will never make a difference." Whereupon the boy picked up one final starfish and placed it into the sea and said, "Well, I made a difference to that one."
